

Gentlemen and Ladies
of the FCC,

If Sinclair
Broadcasting
force-feeding an anti-Kerry
documentary to its member stations
isn't the greatest abuse of the public
airwaves in history,
it's a lock for second. This must be illegal, and I depend on the FCC to police and control
the media companies
to ensure the public interest is served.

I receive KQVR, CBS
13, from Sacramento,
CA. The last thing
I want or need to see is partisan
political advertisements
masquerading as a
news source. That Sinclair is forcing KQVR to air this so
called documentary
is offensive.
Sinclair are NOT my local news, they do not represent local opinion, they do not serve the public in northern California.

The next time the FCC considers allowing greater
media consolidation,
abuses like this
ought to be exhibit
A for denying such consolidation. When I put my tax check in the mail, I expect governance.
I assume it will be
bad governance,
given recent history, but if the FCC sits idly by

while this sort of
action takes place, I'd like to suggest that you are abdicating your responsibility to the US populace.
